Registration and Cancellation Policies (PLEASE READ CAREFULLY)

To reserve your place in a workshop, please complete your registration and submit a minimum deposit payment of $150. This covers the $100 workshop deposit and a yearly non-refundable $50 administrative fee. If you have already paid the administrative fee for a different workshop this year, that fee will be waived. Once we receive your registration and payment, we will email you a confirmation with additional details. If you do not have email access, we can send your confirmation via postal mail.

If you paid a deposit, the balance of the workshop fee is due at the start of the workshop. It can be paid in person when you arrive at the workshop.

Student cancellation (student is unable to attend):

1. To receive a full refund of workshop fees (less the non-refundable $50 administration fee), you must notify CAW at least 60 days before the workshop begins. CAW considers itself "notified" on the date it receives the notification.
2. When notification of cancellation is received less than 60 days before the start of a workshop, all costs paid to CAW are non-refundable, non-creditable, and non-transferable. In the event of a medical emergency or a death in the immediate family, 50% of the class fee will be refunded.
3. For all workshops cancelled by the student, the $50 administration fee will not be refunded.

CAW cancellation:

Occasionally, CAW may cancel a workshop due to low enrollment or unforeseen circumstances, such as instructor illness. For a workshop cancelled by CAW:

1. Students registered for that workshop will receive a full refund of the workshop fees paid to date.
2. The $50 administration fee will be refunded if a student is not registered for any other workshop.
3. CAW is not responsible for any non-refundable travel arrangements, deposits or out-of-pocket expenses incurred by our students. Students are urged to purchase refundable airline tickets in case of workshop cancellation or other unforeseen conditions.

Student transfers to another class:

Workshop transfers are permitted until 60 days before the start date. Any transfer requested within the 60-day window is subject to our Student Cancellation policy: all previous payments (full or partial) are forfeited, and the student must pay the full registration fee for the new workshop.
