REGISTRATION AND CANCELLATION POLICIES
Cloudcroft Art Workshops (CAW)

Registration:

To reserve your place in a workshop, please complete your registration. Once CAW receives your registration and your deposit or full payment, we will send you a confirmation email, followed by a second email containing additional workshop details. If you do not have access to email, your confirmation will be sent by mail.

If you paid just the deposit when registering, then the balance will be due at the workshop check-in. If you paid the full amount, no further action is required.

Student Cancellations:

If you need to cancel your registration more than 45 days before your workshop, your deposit or full payment is fully refundable.

If you cancel within 45 days of the workshop, we will refund all but a $50 cancellation fee. Of course, you are also welcome to donate a portion of your payment to help support our programs.

CAW Cancellations:

Students registered for a workshop at the time of its cancellation will receive a full refund of any deposit or full payment made for that specific workshop.

If CAW must cancel a workshop for any unforeseen reason, registered students will be notified at least 30 days prior to the scheduled start date.

CAW is not responsible for non-refundable travel arrangements, deposits, or other out-of-pocket expenses incurred by students. We strongly encourage purchasing refundable travel accommodations to protect against unforeseen circumstances.

Student Transfers:

If you have already registered for a workshop and wish to transfer your registration to a different workshop, you may do so without an additional fee, provided the transfer is requested more than 45 days before the start of your originally scheduled workshop.

If there is a difference in price between the two workshops, we will either refund the difference or request payment of the additional amount, as applicable.

For transfer requests made less than 45 days before the start of the originally scheduled workshop, an additional $50 transfer fee will apply.
